

Support For Families

- The Medical Home Resource Team can help you learn to organize and coordinate services for your child.
- Learn how to advocate effectively for your child's medical, emotional and therapy needs.
- Locate support groups and find information specific to your child's needs.
- Get in touch with other parents who have similar challenges with their children.

Did You Know?

- The Medical Home Resource Team can help you learn to organize and coordinate services for your child.
- The resource team can help you learn how to work with providers to coordinate your child's complex health needs.
- There is a family-run organization that supports families who have children with behavioral or mental issues and disorders.
- The Medically Fragile Children's organization can help pay for respite care, home care, medical supplies and more.

Helpful Resources

- Community Mental Health Department can provide an assessment of your child's mental health.
- The Medical Home Resource Team can help you learn to organize and coordinate services for your child.
- Early Intervention Specialists in the education service district can provide free evaluations, consultations and therapies for children under 3.
- Childhood Health Associates of Salem has a web site with links to the educational materials, resources and more.

